HISTORICAL RECORD

THE First Baptist Church, Calgary, Alberta, was organized May 15, 1888, upon the advice of Mr. H. H. Stovel, editor of the North-West Baptist, Winnipeg, who was passing through to the Pacific Coast. The organization was effected at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward King. The charter members—seven in number—all of whom are living today, were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward King, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eshleman, Mr. J. G. Van Wart, all still residing in Calgary; Mrs. George Constantine, now of Innisfail, and Mr. J. S. Povah, at the present time living in Vancouver, B.C. Messrs. Van Wart and Povah were elected deacons, Mr. Eshleman, Church Clerk, and Mr. Van Wart, Treasurer.

For the first few months after organization, the meetings were held in the homes of the members. Later a room was secured in the Masonic building on Eighth Avenue East. This soon proving too small, a hall was secured in a more central location and designated "The Upper Room." Here happy services, conducted by the members, were held until the new church was built.

The first (student) pastor was Mr. H. E. Wise, who served the church helpfully from May to September, 1889. In November, 1889, Rev. George Cross, (now Dr. Cross of Newton Theological Seminary), was called to the pastorate, and continued in charge for two years. His ministry is remembered with much appreciation by those who were identified with the church at that time. It was during his pastorate that the building, still standing at the corner of Second Street West and Sixth Avenue (then known as Angus Ave.), was erected. The Rev. Alexander Grant, of revered memory, preached the opening sermons on August 30, 1890. The new building seated about 125, and the membership at that time was about 50, of whom 10 were non-resident.

Rev. H. E. Wise succeeded Mr. Cross in July, 1892, and resigned after two years useful ministry, to attend Newton Seminary. Rev. Matthew Gold, T. A. P. Frost, and J. R. Cresswell each followed with brief pastorates. On November 6, 1898, Rev. J. W. Litch was called to minister to the church, and for nearly seven years he rendered excellent service. During his pastorate, the old building proved inadequate to meet the growing congregation, and the property at the corner of Seventh Avenue and First Street West was secured and a building capable of seating about 450 erected. The new church was opened on February 24, 1901, with a membership of about 160.

In January, 1905, Rev. F. W. Patterson (now of First Church, Edmonton,) was called to succeed Mr. Litch. The growth of the church and denomination in the city during his successful pastorate was most marked. The burning of the church soon after he assumed office could not check the enthusiasm of the pastor and excellent band of men and women associated with him in membership. A new building capable of seating about 600 was at once erected. The members then numbered about 200. Ere many months, Westbourne Baptist Church, on Second Street, East, was organized with 23 members from the First Church. Then Heath Baptist Church was formed with 25 more members from the Mother Church. Following this, 31 members started Olivet Church, on Fourteenth Avenue West, and 25 others commenced a church in Crescent Heights, and still 25 others were organized into the Hillhurst Baptist Church. Thus five churches were formed from the membership of the First Church, and the promise was verified: "There is that scattereth and yet increaseth," for the Mother Church continued to flourish. Foreign missions were not neglected during these days of local expansion, and in May, 1907, the church decided to attempt the support of Rev. J. A. K. Walker as their Foreign Missionary in India.

In January, 1909, Pastor Patterson accepted the call of the church in Edmonton, and the following months proved somewhat difficult for the partorless church. The officers, however, nobly stood by their posts, though the membership became much scattered.

In July, 1909, Rev. J. C. Sycamore, pastor of James Street Church, Hamilton, Ontario, was invited to the pastorate, and assumed the office on October 3 of that year. The constant growth which has marked the history of the church, is still evident. The inadequate accommodation for the growing congregation led to the erection in November, 1910, of a gallery capable of seating 250 people. Again the capacity of the church is taxed, and frequently many are unable to get in at the evening service.

The removal of many members to the south-west part of the city, and the crowding of business blocks around the church has led to the sale of the present building and the purchase of six lots on the corner of Thirteenth Avenue and Fourth Street West. Here is being erected one of the finest church buildings in Western Canada. The most modern arrangements for Sunday School and the various departments of church work have been carefully planned. Beauty and utility are happily combined. A comfortable parsonage will also be erected adjoining the church. The value of the new property will be about $150.

000.00, and the present membership of the church members about 450, of whom 90 are non-resident.

Thus from such small beginnings God has blessed His servants in their efforts for the Kingdom of Christ. From seven members in 1888, six flourishing churches are today seeking to propagate the principles of the New Testament in our beautiful and growing city. These churches are supporting Missionaries in the Foreign Field and giving thousands of dollars annually to the work beyond our own locality. And the end is not yet. We believe the coming years will prove that God who has so blessed the efforts of those who have wrought so well in the past is still crowning with success the labors of those who are seeking to establish and promulgate the Gospel of redeeming love, and the principles so clearly set forth in the New Testament, which has even been the sufficient authority for those who constitute the membership of a Baptist Church.

—J. C. S.

STATEMENT OF INCORPORATION AND CONSTITUTION

IN October, 1907, the members of the church sought and duly secured incorporation as a joint stock company under an ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance Respecting the Holding of Lands in Trust for Religious Societies and Congregations," pursuant to chapter 22 of the Acts of the Legislative Assembly for the Province of Alberta for the year 1907.

The incorporation was granted and duly registered with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies on October 28, 1907, under the following terms, and in agreement with the constitution of the First Baptist Church, which was adopted by unanimous vote of the church.

TERMS OF INCORPORATION.

(1) The said congregation belongs to the religious body known as the Baptist Denomination.

(2) The persons who, according to the rules of the congregation are entitled to vote in respect of church business are all communicants, that is, all whose names are inscribed on the church roll as members of the congregation.

(3) The proposed corporate name is "The First Baptist Church, of Calgary, Alberta."

(4) The officers who shall exercise the powers of the body corporate in any dealings with the property thereof, are those persons who may now be or who may hereinafter be appointed by the congregation as trustees thereof.

(5) The rules to be complied with before any of the property of the congregation shall be dealt with by the officers thereof are as follows: No debt shall be contracted with security in church property, and the trustees shall not expend money upon, or dispose of church property, without the sanction of a majority of the members of the congregation present at any regular meeting thereof, provided that this shall not be held to interfere with or exclude the necessary expenditure for repairs on the buildings of the congregation.

(5) The present members of any properly constituted meeting shall constitute a quorum of the congregation, a majority of whom may deal with matters coming before the meeting.

ARTICLE I

Name and Doctrine.

This church shall be known as the First Baptist Church, of Calgary.

This church shall subscribe to the principles upon which Baptist Churches generally are founded, and shall adopt as its rule of faith and practice, Christ's law as laid down in the New Testament.

ARTICLE II

Membership.

Any person giving credible evidence of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and agreeing to co-operate in the work of the church, and who has been immersed upon profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, may become a member of the church, but no one shall be received as a member to whose reception any member shall object, except as hereinafter recorded.

In the event of an objection being raised against the admission of an applicant, the Deacons and the Pastor shall investigate the objection and report to the church thereon. If such committee shall report against the objection and the church shall adopt such report, such applicant shall be entitled to admission to the church.

Any member of the church shall be subject to its discipline and liable to removal from its membership by vote of the members present at any regular church meeting, or at any meeting specially called for that purpose, due notice having been given to the church and to such members.

Letters of dismission to other Baptist Churches shall be granted to those members desiring them, who may be in good standing at the time of making their application; that is to say, those against whom no charge has been laid prior to the time of application, and who up to the time of their withdrawal from the community in which the church is situated have paid into the treasury all monies pledged by them to the church. Exceptions to the above rule may be made at any time upon the recommendation of the Pastor and Deacons.

Absentee members are expected to correspond with the Pastor or Clerk once in six months. Otherwise at the end of twelve months, their names will be reported to the church for consideration. Members from whom no word has been received for two years or more shall be dropped from the roll of the church.

Letters from other churches to be considered valid, must be presented within three months from date of issue unless the holder shall give a satisfactory reason for the delay.

Persons who may have been members of Baptist Churches elsewhere, but who owing to any peculiar circumstances, are not in possession of proper church letters, may be received into membership of the church, upon the vote of the church, after examination by the properly constituted committee.

Excluded members may be restored upon removal of the causes which led to their exclusion.

ARTICLE III

Officers.

The officers of the church shall be: Pastor, Deacons, Trustees, Finance Committee, Clerk, Treasurer, Weekly Offering Steward and Auditors.

(a)—Pastor.

The Pastor shall take charge of the church in spiritual things. He shall have charge of the services of the church, administer the ordinances, carefully watch over, guide and advance the religious interests of its members. He shall be ex-officio of all committees, and unless relieved at his own request shall be chairman when present at all church meetings.

When a Pastor is to be chosen, the Deacons shall constitute a pulpit committee, whose duty it shall be to take such steps as may seem to them best calculated to secure a Pastor.

The Pastor shall be chosen by the members of the church by ballot at a meeting called for that purpose, due notice of which shall have been given to at least two-thirds of the resident membership. Two-thirds of the ballots cast shall be necessary for a call; but no call shall be extended until the rate of salary to be paid shall have been fixed by the church.

(b)—Deacons.

It shall be the duty of the Deacons to assist the Pastor in his labors for the spiritual advancement of the church, affording aid and counsel in the performance of his duties. The Deacons, with the Pastor, shall have charge of the choir and the music of the church. It shall be their duty to seek out such members as need pecuniary assistance and to use the aims of the church for their relief; They shall visit the sick, prepare and distribute the emblems of the Lord's Supper, and wait on candidates at the Baptistry. The Deacons shall also constitute a committee to examine candidates who make application for church membership.

Dacons shall be elected at the annual meeting of the church and shall serve for a term of three years, the elections being so arranged that one-third shall retire each year.

In the event of a vacancy, or when it is considered necessary to increase the number of Deacons, the required election may be held at any regular business meeting of the church, due notice of such election having been given from the pulpit a Sunday previous.

(c)—Trustees.

Trustees shall be elected at the annual business meeting of the church. They shall hold the property of the church in trust in accordance with the Alberta Act for the incorporation of churches. They shall have the legal custody of the church premises and property. They shall keep the building properly insured and make all necessary repairs to prevent delapidation. The expenses of same shall be paid by the church.

(d)—Clerk.

The Clerk shall be elected annually at the annual business meeting of the church. He shall keep a correct record of the proceedings of the business meeting of the church, and shall take charge of such records. He shall at all times produce such books for inspection when requested to do so by the Deacons and shall communicate with any person on any matter when requested to do so by the church.

It shall be the duty of the Clerk to keep a correct record of the church members; an accurate list of all members received with date of reception, baptism, dismission, and such other details as may be deemed necessary.

(e)—Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall be elected annually at the annual business meeting of the church. The Treasurer shall receive and pay out all monies belonging to the church under the direction of the finance committee, and shall render a true and correct account to the church of all monies received and paid out by him, and shall at all times when required by the committee, furnish them with a statement of the financial position of the church. All monies shall be handled through a bank, to be approved by Committee.

(f)—Auditors.

Two Auditors shall be elected at the last monthly meeting of the church year, whose duty it shall be to examine the books, accounts and vouchers of the Treasurer of the church, and the Treasurers of the various church organizations.

(g)—Weekly Offering Steward.

The Weekly Offering Steward shall be elected at the annual meeting of the church. It shall be his duty to keep a record of all subscriptions to the weekly offering fund of the church, of all payments thereon, and to furnish to each subscriber at the close of each quarter, a statement of his account with the church with a copy of the Treasurer's Statement attached.

(h)—Finance Committee.

The Finance Committee shall consist of nine members, chosen by the church, together with the Weekly Offering Steward, and Treasurer, who shall be ex-officio members.

Headaches Usually Mean Eye Strain

- ¶ If you are troubled with headaches you should waste no time in consulting a reliable optician. Nine times in ten they are caused by tired or strained eyes. Many who have suffered for years continue using drugs without benefit, whereas a few dollars for a pair of glasses to remove the trouble would be a permanent cure.
- ¶ Sight is too precious to be trifled with. It will therefore be to your interest to consult our thoroughly experienced and reliable optician. He does not experiment. He knows his business and is honest in what he tells you. If you consult him and he finds you don't need glasses he will tell you so.
- ¶ Consultation Free.
